

[Robinson, Lucinda]

DEATHS.

In South Dansville, April 8th, Mrs. LUCINDA ROBINSON, consort of Elisha Robinson, aged 49 years. In the death of sister R., a husband and a large family of children, and numerous other connexions, are left to mourn their loss.

Sister R. was an amiable member of community—much respected by all who knew her. She united with the Universalist society in this place when it was first organized, in 1822—a convert from the Baptist church—and has always maintained the character of a Christian. Strong in the faith of universal salvation, obtained by a diligent search of the Scriptures, she lived devoted to the cause of truth in which she professed to believe. As a society, we deeply mourn the loss of so bright an example of faith and practice. Long will be remembered the virtues of the worthy departed.—May our bereaved brother receive the consolations of the spirit of truth to comfort and cheer him during his pilgrimage—and may the relatives enjoy the blessed hope of the Gospel. Funeral on the 10th. Sermon from 1 Cor. xv:49 by
