

[Robinson, Roxana Watson]

Robinson Funeral

Mrs. Roxanna Robinson, widow of Rufus T. Robinson, who died Sunday evening at her home, 57 Greene street, after an illness of six months, the last two weeks of which confined her to the bed, will be held Wednesday at the house, Rev. J. [James] M. Payson of Canton officiating. Mrs. Robinson was a charter member of the Universalist church of Ogdensburg and also of Maple City chapter, Eastern Star. She was very active in church work. Her husband died in 1905 and she is survived by a son, Martin L., and a daughter, Miss Jennie E., both of this city; four sisters and a brother, Mrs. Sarah Manning, of Swanton, Vt., Mrs Amelia Lapell, Mrs. Martha McKenzie and Mrs. Elvira Wells, of Moriah, and James Watson of Saranac Lake. Mrs. Robinson was born in Mooers Sept, 18, 1846, and was married May 21, 1866 in Saranac, where she lived until 1881, when her husband removed to Ogdensburg to engage in the crockery business. The body will be placed in the vault at the Ogdensburg cemetery.
