

[Robinson, Violet Wood]

Mrs. Violet Robinson Dies at Hospital

Mrs. Violet Ola Robinson, 42, formerly of Herkimer, who moved to 10 Johnson Ave., Mohawk, last year, died suddenly today in Herkimer Memorial Hospital.

Born Dec. 9, 1911 in Oriskany Falls, Mrs. Robinson was a daughter of Charles and Mae Hoyt Wood. She came to Herkimer in 1936. She was married to Lloyd Robinson on June 15, 1930 in Syracuse.

Mrs. Robinson was a member of the Stitchery Club, Universalist Branch AUW [Association of Universalist Women], Myrtle Chapter, OES, and the Universalist Church.

Surviving are her husband, Mohawk; one daughter, Mrs. Clifford White, Syracuse; her parents and a brother, Lyle Wood, of Bombay, N.Y.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Evening Telegram, Herkimer-Ilion NY, Sat. 5 Jun 1954

MRS. LLOYD ROBINSON

Services for Mrs. Violet Ola Robinson, 42, of 10 Johnson Ave., Mohawk, were held at 2 p.m. today from the Fenner Fural Home, with burial in Mohawk Cemetery.

The Rev. Stanley C. Stall, Universalist pastor, officiated. Bearers were Victor Goodrich, Robert Green, Edward Sapp and Neil Thompson.

Evening Telegram, Herkimer-Ilion NY, Sat. 5 Jun 1954