

[Rogers, Charles O.]

C. O. ROGERS DIES FOLLOWING LONG ILLNESS

Member of Lincoln League and Grange—

Was Native of the City

(Special to The Standard)

ADAMS CENTER, April 21.—Charles O. Rogers, 69, died at 3 o'clock this morning following a long illness. Mr. Rogers has [sic] lived in this vicinity all his life. He was born in Watertown in 1854, the son of Jeremy and Janes Estes Rogers. He removed to this village about six years ago from a farm a short distance from this place.

Mr. Rogers was a member of the Lincoln League and the Grange.

Besides his widow, Mina Hodge Rogers, he is survived by a daughter, Lona Bradbury, of Malay, N.Y.; two brothers, George of Adams and Fremont [Fremont] of Watertown; two sisters, Mrs. Henrietta Bertrand of new Haven, Conn., and Mrs. Harriet Williams of Watertown.

Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home. Burial will be made in Adams Center Cemetery.

Watertown Daily Standard, Watertown NY, Sat. 21 Apr 1923

Funeral of C. O. Rogers

Adams Center, April 25.—Funeral services for Charles O. Rogers were held at the home in Church street Monday afternoon at 2. Mr. Norman D. Fletcher of All Souls Universalist church in Watertown [a student minister] officiated. Four nephews, Lee Rogers of Adams, Robert Hodge of Rome and J. Rodney Hodge and Leon Rogers of Adams Center, acted as bearers.

The out-of-town relatives who attended the funeral were Jay Hodge, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hodge and daughter, Lucile, of Rome; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bradbury of Mallory; Dee Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers of Adams; Fremont Rogers, Mrs. Albert Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Salisbury, Mrs. W. H. Jewett, Mrs. Orlando Rogers, Wallace Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. George Williams and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Allen of Watertown.

Watertown Daily Times, Watertown NY, Wed. 25 Apr 1923