

[Rose, Byron David]

Byron D. Rose

Byron D. Rose, a life long resident of the town of Exeter and one of Schuyler Lake's most highly respected citizens, passed away Monday May 19th at 6 a. m., at the Parshall Hospital at Oneonta, where he was taken for treatment about three weeks ago suffering from [a] complication of diseases of which he had been a great sufferer for months. He was a son of Dorr and Clarissa (Thatcher) Rose and was born June 21, 1858 on the old Rose homestead in the town of Exeter. He was married to Anna May Yates of Schuyler Lake July 8, 1885, who died about November 17, 1888 [1898, per her gravestone]. He was a staunch Republican in politics and had held office of town assessor for eighteen years, going out of office only this year. He has also worked as trolley agent at Schuyler Lake for years. He was a member of the Schuyler Lake, K. O. T. M. He leaves to mourn his death three sons, Don W. Rose of Cooperstown, Claude Rose of Schuyler Lake, Leslie V. Rose of Liberty; three grandchildren, Dorothy, Robert and Richard Rose of Liberty; one brother, Lester L. Rose, of Endicott, besides several nephews and nieces.

The body was brought to the home of his son, Don W. Rose at Cooperstown, Monday, and was taken to Schuyler Lake Wednesday when prayer was said at the home at 1:15 p.m. and the funeral held from the Universalist church at 2:30 o'clock. The Rev. Clyde Truax officiated. Burial in the family plot in the village cemetery. Sympathy of many friends is extended the bereaved family.— Schuyler Lake Correspondent.
