

[Rounds, Thomas R.]

CITY OF AUBURN

Six months ago pulmonary trouble began to affect Thomas R. Rounds, only son of Frank B. Rounds. The younger Rounds was employed in the St. Louis branch of the D. M. Osborne Company and about three months since his father went to St. Louis to bring the son and family home. The young man died last night leaving a widow and four children.

The Auburn Argus, Auburn NY, Fri. 30 Apr 1897

THE ROUNDS FUNERAL

The funeral of Thomas R. Rounds was held yesterday afternoon from his father's home in Janet street. Rev. O. M. Hilton, pastor of the First Universalist church officiated. During the services Mrs. J. Lewis Grant and Miss Jessica Cuykendall sang two hymns. The bearers were Nathan Kent, Fred H. Wiggins, Charles Dyer, James T. Carson, E. E. Scovill and Martin J. Lower. The floral tributes were profuse and beautiful. Burial was in Fort Hill.

The Auburn Bulletin, Auburn NY, Mon. 26 Apr 1897

Transcribed on 22 Jan 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY