

[Rowe, Fidelia Williams Compton]

Mrs. Fidelia Rowe, Aged Middleport Woman, Succumbs
Lifetime Niagara County Resident
President of Local W.C.T.U. Twenty-Six Years

Mrs. Fidelia Williams Compton Rowe, 63, of Middleport, widow of [Samuel Compton and] Jay S. Rowe, died Saturday in the Medina Memorial Hospital. She fell three weeks ago, suffering a fractured hip. The only surviving relatives are cousins.

Mrs. Rowe was born in the Drum road and had always lived in Niagara vicinity. She was a member of the W.C.T.U. and president of the Middleport Union for 26 years, retiring from office four years ago.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at the funeral home of Richardson and Knuebel, 38 State street, Middleport, with burial in Hartland Central cemetery. The Rev. Donald K. Evans, pastor of the Middleport Universalist church will officiate.

Union-Sun & Journal, Lockport NY, Tue. 6 Sep 1932

Transcribed on 7 Jun 2018 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY