

[Rowley, Herman H. and Alice P. McCauley]

Double Funeral Held for Elderly Couple

Double funeral services were conducted yesterday for an elderly couple whose deaths occurred five minutes apart last Thursday. Mrs. Alice P. Rowley, [64?], collapsed in their home, 402 Cottage Street, Thursday afternoon, and her husband, Herman H. Rowley, 77, fell dead at the feet of the policeman who came to investigate the ambulance call.

Mr. Rowley was buried at Springwater, and his wife will be buried in Ontario, Canada, at the convenience of the family. They were married nine years ago, each having been wed previously.

Services were conducted by Rev. Charles Clare Blauvelt, pastor of First Universalist Church, at ??? Lake Avenue.

Mr. Rowley was a member of Genesee Lodge, F. & A. M., Lalia Rookh Grotto, United Commercial Travelers, Odd Fellows, Rochester Ad Club, and Chamber of Commerce. He is survived by a son, Carlton W. Rowley of Rochester, and a sister, Mrs. Miles Curry of Burns. His wife leaves a brother, John A. McCauley of Ontario, Canada.

Democrat and Chronicle, Rochester NY, Mon. 19 Mar 1934

Transcribed on 14 Jun 2008 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY