MISS ROYS, 50, DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Miss Gussie Roys, 50, daughter of Wellington Roys of 118 Webster St., died at the Alice Hyde Hospital last night at 6:45 o'clock after a lingering illness. She had been in failing health since last December.

Miss Roys was born in Dickinson Center, a daughter of Wellington and Eva Simonds Roys. She attended Brushton High School and Potsdam Normal and was engaged for several years in the teaching profession. During the World War she held a clerical position in Washington and later was employed in similar work for the Dairyman's League in New York City.

She had been a member of the Universalist Church in Washington. Her mother died in 1931. For the past eight years she had made her home with her father.

Surviving are her father and two sisters, Mrs. Elias Dewey of Malone, and Mrs. C. C. Cranson of Syracuse.

The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Roys home, the Rev. Robert Crothers officiating. Interment will be in Morningside Cemetery.
