HARRY G. RUBY FUNERAL HELD

Little Falls — Funeral services for Harry G. Ruby, 63, a former Herkimer Evening Telegram employe[e], who died Sunday in Little Falls Hospital after a long illness, were held at 2:30 p.m. today from the Markwart funeral home, with the Rev. Howard Gilman of the Universalist Church officiating. Interment was in Church Street cemetery.

Mr. Ruby was born May 11, 1888, the son of Edgar A. and Alida Getman Ruby. He married Edna Day in Lowville on Dec. 30, 1911.

After graduating from local schools he entered the printer's trade, which he followed for 40 years. In his younger days, he was connected with the Journal & Courere and at one time was employed by the Evening Telegram. He later went into business with Lambert Will, becoming senior partner in the Ruby-Will Printing Co.

He was a member of the Masonic Lodge, Loyal Order of Moose, Little Falls Maennerchor and the Universalist Church.

Surviving are his wife, 256 Church St.; a daughter, Mrs. J. Frederick Dunckel, Ilion; two grandchildren, David Edgar Ruby, Dolgeville and Peter Jon Dunckel, Ilion; an aunt, Mrs. Mary Vincent, Little Falls. A son, Edgar, was killed during World War II.
