

[Russel, Polly]

DEATHS.

In Spafford (recently a part of Marcellus,) Onondaga county, on the 6th inst., of consumption, Mrs. Polly Russel, consort of Mr. Jonathan Russel, in the 58th year of her age.

For eighteen years Mrs. Russel was a firm believer in Universalism, shewing [sic] forth her faith by her works, and adorning in life and in death, the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things. She has left her aged consort, three sons and three daughters, to mourn their loss, while they can rejoice at her gain.

At her request the writer delivered her funeral discourse in an orchard near her late dwelling, from the words selected by her previous to her death, in Romans vi:23, to a large and sympathizing auditory.

J. C. jr. [Rev. Jacob Chase]

Evangelical Magazine & Gospel Advocate, Utica NY, Sat. 25 Jun 1831
[a Universalist newspaper]