

[Russell, Victor H.]

VICTOR H. RUSSELL, 84, NATIVE OF BOMBAY, EXPIRES IN ROCHESTER

Victor H. Russell, 84, of Rochester, a brother of Mrs. A. G. Reynolds, Bombay, died in his sleep at his home in Rochester last Friday, March 4th. He had been able to be around until the time of his death.

Born in Bombay on November 6, 1875, he was a son of the late Horace A. and Lillian McCarthy Russell of Bombay. He was active in amateur sports and as a youth pitched softball for the Naval Reserve and other teams in the state. He bowled for many years and at the time of his death held the high three-game score in the Ad Club league. He had been a participant in many horse shoe tournaments.

He was a member of First Universalist Church and the Rotary Club of Rochester. He had been manager and treasurer of the West Coal Company there for many years.

Surviving are his wife, the former Sarah Walters of Rochester; three sisters, Mrs. Arthur G. Reynolds, Bombay; Mrs. Melvin Fowler, Hampton, N. H. and Mrs. Ralph S. Rivers, Palmyra, N. J., and several nieces and nephews.

A memorial service was held at 3:00 p. m. Sunday in the First Universalist Church, Rochester.

Fort Covington Sun, Fort Covington NY, Thu. 10 Mar 1960

Transcribed on 15 Apr 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY