

[Rutenber, William]

DEATHS.

In Masonville, Del. [Delaware] co., on the 20th of Nov. last, Mr. William Rutenber, of Fly Creek [Otsego Co.], in the 87th year of his age. Mr. Rutenber has long been a resident of Otsego. He was a firm believer in the Abrahamic faith. He was one of the number of brethren who composed and organized the First Universalist Society in Otsego county; and thus raised in central N. Y. a banner, on which was inscribed the boundless love of God and universal salvation of man. He lived to see numerous hosts assemble under a similar banner. But he is called from labor to refreshment—gone to be with Christ, which is far better. Peace to his ashes. Honor to his memory.

P.

Christian Ambassador, Auburn NY, Sat. 22 Mar 1851
[a Universalist newspaper]

Transcribed on 17 Oct 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY