

[Sage, Hiram N.]

MORTUARY

Hiram N. Sage, aged 85 years, died at his home in Corfu Wednesday afternoon after a brief illness with bronchial pneumonia. Mr. Sage was the father of Charles H. Sage, assistant superintendent of the Johnston Harvester Company, and was the last of eleven children. For several years he conducted a large farm near Churchville. He is survived by his wife, and besides his son in Batavia he leaves four other sons, Wilber E. of Churchville; Frank P., of Rochester, and Albert K. and M. J. Sage of Brooklyn. The deceased was a charter member and the last survivor of the original Churchville Lodge No. 67, F. & A. M. He was also a member of the Universalist church. The funeral will be held on Saturday afternoon from his late home in Corfu, and the burial will take place in Churchville.
