

[Salsbury, Flora L. Ward]

Death of Mrs. John Salsbury

McLean, Feb. 16—Mrs. Flora L. Salsbury, 70, wife of John H. Salsbury, died Monday evening, Feb. 14, at Ver Nooy's sanitarium in Cortland, following a few days' illness. Mrs. Salsbury was born in Syracuse, March 6, 1867, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Byron Ward. She came to McLean a number of years ago and lived on a farm north of the village, and later they purchased a residence in the village. She was a member of the Universalist church in McLean, Eastern Star chapter of Cortland, and Eastern Star club of McLean. Services were held at 11 o'clock Thursday morning at the Universalist church in McLean. Rev. Edward C. Downey of the Cortland Universalist church officiated. Burial was in Myrtle Hill Cemetery, Syracuse.

Cortland Democrat, Cortland NY, Fri. 18 Feb 1938

Transcribed on 17 Oct 2014 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY