

[Salsbury, John H.]

J. H. SALSBUY, 72, OF M'LEAN, DIES

John H. Salsbury, 72, died at his home in McLean yesterday afternoon after a long illness. He had been a resident of McLean for 35 years.

Mr. Salsbury was born January 6, 1879, in Lopez, Pa., the son of George and Agnes Salsbury. He was a member of Dryden Lodge 472, F&AM, and of the First Universalist Church of Cortland.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Florence Salsbury, two sisters, Mrs. Harry Mineah of McLean and Mrs. Anna Vandermark of Livingston Manor; two brothers, James and William Salsbury of New Albany, Pa., and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p.m., Monday at the Salsbury home where friends may call at their convenience. Rev. Stanley Skinner, pastor of McLean Federated Church, will officiate. Interment will be in Myrtle Hill Cemetery, Syracuse.
