HOWARD A. SANDERS

St. Johnsville—Howard A. Sanders, 74, died Wednesday at his home between this village and West St. Johnsville, after an illness of several months.

Mr. Sanders was born in the Town of Danube on May 5, 1870, a son of Alonzo and Mary Wagner Sanders. He spent the early part of his life in Danube, and conducted a farm in that town for some years before moving to the town of St. Johnsville in 1919.

For several years Mr. Sanders served as assessor of the town of St. Johnsville, and he was president of the Mount Hope Cemetery association at the time of his death. He was a member of St. Johnsville Masonic lodge.

Surviving are the wife, who is the former Alice Cronkhite; one sister, Mrs. Adella Bellinger, this village, and several nieces and nephews.

The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home. Rev. C. [Clinton] A. Moulton, pastor of the Dolgeville Universalist church, will officiate, and burial will be in Mount Hope cemetery at Fords Bush, where the Masonic committal service will be conducted by members of the local lodge.
