

[Sargent, Helen Frances Parker]

MRS. HELEN FRANCES SARGENT

Mrs. Helen Frances Sargent, aged twenty-four, wife of Pvt. Robert Sargent, who is serving with the Army in Hawaii, who had been residing for the duration with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Parker at Emmons, died in Fox hospital, Oneonta, Tuesday morning at 9:20 of complications attending childbirth. Cause of death was given as ruptured stomach ulcers.

Her daughter, Carol Louise, born at the hospital early Friday morning of last week, is gaining steadily and no complications are anticipated in her condition.

Surviving Mrs. Sargent, besides her husband, daughter, and parents are a mother-in-law, Mrs. Tracy Sargent, Delhi, RD 2; five grandparents, Mrs. Cora Walrath of Cooperstown, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Craig of Delhi, RD 2, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Sargent of Richford; and a brother-in-law, Clifford Sargent of Delhi, RD 2. They will have the sympathy of wide circles of friends.

Helen Frances Parker was born Aug. 3, 1920 in Oneonta, the daughter of Henry R. and Katherine (Burns) Parker, and attended the city schools, graduating from the High school in 1938. She was married to Mr. Sargent, who lived at Delhi, April 26, 1941, and they lived for nearly two years on his farm at West Kortright.

Mrs. Sargent was a quiet young woman of splendid character, devoted to her home and family, and one who made many firm friends. She was a member of the Universalist church at Oneonta.

Otsego Farmer, Cooperstown NY, Fri. 1 Sep 1944