Saunders Rites At Fort Plain

FORT PLAIN, March 4.—Funeral services for Maynard Saunders, 70, who died Friday in Nathan Littauer Hospital, Gloversville, were conducted yesterday at the Gray funeral home.

He had been a patient in the hospital for several weeks.

Born in Little Falls, March 6, 1881, Mr. Saunders lived in Fort Plain for many years and worked as an oil burner serviceman. He also resided at one time at Caroga Lake.

Survivors include a cousin, Mrs. Frank Neach [née Gertrude Nellis], Nelliston.

The Rev. Lyman Achenbach, pastor of Universalist Church of the Messiah, officiated at the funeral. The body was placed in the vault for Spring burial in Mount Hope Cemetery, Fords Bush.
