

[Sawyer, Caroline M. Fisher]

Obituary.

Mrs. Caroline M. Sawyer, wife of Rev. T. J. [Thomas Jefferson] Sawyer, D.D., of Tufts college, died in Boston, Saturday, aged 82. The deceased was for many years preceptress of the Clinton Liberal Institute when it was located in Clinton, and is pleasantly remembered by many of our older citizens. For more than half a century she was famous as a Universalist and as an author. The old Democratic Review, in its day the chief of literary monthlies, published her writings, and in New York, where her husband was pastor of the Orchard Street Universalist Church, her sketches and poems were published in several newspapers. Her sketches in later years appeared in book form, and were popular with the more exacting class of readers. Mrs. Sawyer is survived by her husband, who tho' over 90 years of age, is in full and beautiful enjoyment of health, mental and social activities.
