

[Schenck, Keziah Warrick]

Died Full of Years

Yesterday morning at an early hour after protracted illness, passed away Keziah Warrick, wife of John R. Schenck, in the ninetieth year of her age. Had she lived until the 23rd day of August next, the day on which she was born at Trenton, N. J. in 1817, she would have been ninety years old.

Mrs. Schenck came to this section with her father's family when quite young and was married to John R. Schenck the 26th day of December, 1844.

One son, James A. Schenck, the only issue, with the husband and grandson, William Schenck, all of this village, survive; also her sister and four brothers—all over eighty—Mary Ann Warrick, George and Jonathan, of Fosterville, town of Aurelius, Henry of Auburn, and Isaac of Battle Creek, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Schenck have resided in the town of Springport forty-five years and in the village of Union Springs since 1870.

The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the family residence on Homer street. Rev. A. [Arnold] S. Yantis [Universalist] of Auburn will officiate. Interment at Oak Ridge cemetery.
