

[Scott, Earl B.]

Earl B. Scott, 79, formerly of Bridgewater, died August 1, in Sarasota, Florida, where he lived for the past 20 years and until recently was manager of the recreation center there.

He was born in Bridgewater, son of Loren and Clara Ferris Scott. He graduated from Bridgewater High School and St. Lawrence University, and for many years was employed as foreman by the Split Rock Chemical Co., Syracuse.

He later owned and operated a diner in Wilkes Barre, Penna., for about 20 years. He was a member of the Universalist Church, Western Star Lodge, F&AM, in Bridgewater and the Irene Temple Shrine, Wilkes Barre, Penna. He married Ann E. Pritchard in 1916, in Bridgewater.

Besides his wife he leaves a daughter, Mrs. Maurice Stuffmann, Van Nuys, California, and three brothers, Fred Scott, Richfield Springs; Charles Scott, Bridgewater; and Irving Scott, Hamilton.

The funeral was at 2 Monday, from the F. W. Fisk Funeral Home, Chadwicks, and with burial in Fairview Cemetery, Bridgewater.

The Courier, Brookfield NY, Thu. 8 Aug 1963

Transcribed on 4 Jan 2010 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY