

[Scott, Emeline Munn]

Death of Mrs. Emeline M. Scott Mourned by Many Friends.

Bridgewater, Dec. 30—Mrs. Emeline Munn Scott, who died yesterday morning, was the only child of Mrs. Betsey Townsend and Elijah Munn and was born June 20, 1828, in Litchfield. On October 6, 1848, she married Willard J. Scott. She came to the spacious home, "Farwell Hill," as a bride. In this home they passed their golden wedding day and here she died. In this home were born their three children, two¹ of whom died in 1900. She was a woman who was greatly and deservedly beloved and her death is sincerely mourned. Mrs. Scott is survived by a daughter, Mrs. C. G. Ward of Utica; five grandchildren, Mrs. Anna Meservey Armstrong, Fort Dodge, Ia., Scott Meservey, Los Angeles, Ca., Miss Anna Ward, living here, Mrs. Margaret and Cornelia Ward of Utica, and two great-grandchildren, Anna Meservey Armstrong and Scott Meservey. Mrs. Scott would have been a woman of distinction in any community and she stood always for what was best in this one. She was a constant attendant of the Universalist Church and was a helper who will be greatly missed. The funeral will be held in the home Thursday at 2 o'clock.
