

[Scott, Mary Coffee]

MRS. CHRISTOPER R. SCOTT

Resident of Harrisville Dies at House of Good Samaritan, Watertown

Mrs. Mary Scott, 65, wife of Christopher R. Scott, of Harrisville, died at the House of the Good Samaritan, Watertown, last Thursday afternoon. She had been a patient at the hospital since February 28.

Mrs. Scott was born in the town of Hermon, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Emory Coffee, in April, 1869. She had lived in Harrisville for several years, and was an active member of the Union Universalist church of Edwards and the Rebekah Lodge of Edwards.

She is survived by her husband, Christopher Scott, of Harrisville; four sons, Walter, of North Russell; Earl and Emory, of Fulton, and Thomas, of Harrisville; three sisters, Mrs. T. J. Hamilton, of Syracuse; Mrs. E. S. Ladd, of Gouverneur, and Mrs. Milo Perrigo, of Williamstown, and by two brothers, W. F. Coffee, of Brier Hill, and Walter Coffee, of Russell. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon.

The Journal and Republican, Lowville NY, Thu. 19 Mar 1925

Transcribed on 18 Apr 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY