MRS. WILLIAM H. SEELEY

ST. JOHNSVILLE, Aug. 29—Mrs. Hazel Eva Myers Seeley, 52, wife of William H Seeley, died Sunday night at her home on the St. Johnsville-Ephratah highway in the Town of Ephrata. She had been ill several weeks with a heart condition.

She was born in the town of Danube, December 6, 1897, the daughter of Charles and Nancy Van Allen Myers. She was married to Mr. Seeley [on] March 28, 1921, and lived on various farms in the Little Falls area until six years ago when they moved to the Ephrata farm.

She was a member of the Universalist church of Dolgeville, and the Ephratah Ladies' aid society.

Besides her husband, the survivors are three sons, Frederick W. Seeley at home; Bernard R. Seeley, Johnstown, and Gordon R. Seeley, Brookmans Corners, Town of Minden; three daughters, Mrs. Herman Benson, Manheim; Mrs. Milton [Lucille] Wood, Johnstown; and Miss Dorothy Seeley, a patient in Sunny View Hospital in Schenectady; eight grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. George Gloskey, Town of Manheim, and Miss Beatrice Myers, Albany; one brother, George Myers, St. Johnsville.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock at the home and at 2 at the Dolgeville Universalist Church. The Rev. Clinton A. Moulton, retired Universalist minister, will officiate. Burial will be made in the Tuttle Cemetery in the Town of Salisbury.
