

[Selden, Gertrude Minerva Weld]

GERTRUDE SELDEN DIES: ILL THREE WEEKS
Resident of Rome 39 Years Survived by Son and Three Daughters

Mrs. Gertrude Minerva Selden, 68, died Tuesday night after an illness of three weeks. She was born in Elgin, Minn., April 8, 1867, daughter of William and Minerva Lawrence Weld, her father having been a Baptist minister. She had lived in Rome 39 years.

Her husband, Lewis Harvey Selden, an architect, died some years ago. He was a 32d degree Mason and Mrs. Selden was a Zura lady, corresponding to the present Eastern Star. She was a member of the old Universalist Church here when Mr. Case was pastor. Of late years she attended the Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Selden, who resided with a daughter, Miss Eloise Selden, 718 Union St., also leaves a son, Harvey Selden, Rome, and two other daughters, Mrs. Marian Graves, Rome, and Mrs. Maud Woolsey, Middletown, N.Y. Three grandchildren Ruth, Gertrude and Lewis Harvey Selden, also survive.

Daily Sentinel, Rome NY, Wed. 1 May 1935

Transcribed on 28 Jul 2012 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY