

[Selwood, Edward]

Edward Selwood

Edward Selwood, aged 54 years, died Friday at the home of his brother, Frank J. Selwood, after having been a long and patient sufferer from kidney trouble. Mr. Selwood was born in Fort Plain and was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Richard [Mary Ann Isles] Selwood. He had always lived here, where he followed the trade of a marble and granite carver and letterer and was associated with his brother in the monument business. Until poor health necessitated his retiring he was a valued member of the Old Fort Plain band and was an expert with the clarinet. He was popular among his acquaintances, and many friends deeply regret his death. The survivors are three brothers, Frank J., of Fort Plain, Rozell[e] of Iliion and William H. of New York; four sisters, Mrs. Mary Fake, Mrs. Charles Z. [Sarah] Brandow and Mrs. Herbert H. [Anna] Carver of Fort Plain and Mrs. Emma Williams of Richmond Hill, L. I. The funeral was held at the home of Frank J. Selwood Sunday, Rev. Dr. Herbert F. Moulton, pastor of the Universalist church, officiating. Interment in the Fort Plain cemetery.
