

[Selwood, Ella Smith]

Mrs. Ella Selwood Succumbs at Flower City Hospital in New York City

Mrs. Ella Selwood, 83, widow of William H. Selwood, died Friday at the Flower Memorial Hospital in New York following a short illness. She was born in Fort Plain, a daughter of William Smith, and went 45 years ago to New York where she had since resided.

The survivors are a daughter, Mrs. Charles Tyler, New York; a niece, Miss Grace White, this village; also two nephews, William Cropsey, New York, and Ivan Smith.

The body was brought to Fort Plain today and funeral services were held in the Catharine Nellis Memorial chapel this afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. William A. Haney, pastor of the Universalist Church officiating.

Interment was made in the Fort Plain Cemetery.

Evening Recorder, Amsterdam NY, Mon. 4 Oct 1937

Transcribed on 30 Apr 2013 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY