

[Seymour, Louisa J. Davis]

Naples, N. Y.—The death of Mrs. Louisa J. Seymour occurred early Wednesday morning. She was 62 years old, and died of heart disease. Mrs. Seymour moved to Naples from Bristol last spring. She was a widow, her husband, Chas. Seymour, having died six years ago. She leaves five adult sons [including Ernest, George, Benjamin, and William] and one married daughter, Mrs. [Anna] Packard, of Bristol. One son, Walter, has lived in Naples for several years; two others have resided here since spring. The family was highly respected. Funeral services will be held at the Universalist church in Baptist Hill today and the remains will be buried in the cemetery at that place.
