

[Shaut, Edward]
[Shaut, Winslow]

DIED THE SAME DAY

Winslow and Edward Shaut, Father and Son, and Former Utica Residents.

The deaths of Winslow Shaut and Edward Shaut, father and son and former residents of Utica, which occurred Saturday, form an unusual coincidence. The father died at the age of 80 at the Soldiers' Home at Bath and the son at Sonyea, Livingston County, at the age of 42. Both were well known in this section of the Mohawk Valley.

Winslow Shaut was born in the Town of Danube, Herkimer County, and there nearly half his life was spent. In 1864 he enlisted and served until the close of the war, when he sold his farm in Danube and removed to Steuben County. In 1890 he came to Utica and opened a grocery store on South Street, conducting this business until very recently, when he entered the home at Bath. During a portion of his time here the son, Edward, lived with him and was employed on the railroad. The father is survived by four sons, William and Barney Shaut, of Little Falls; Sherwin [Sherman] of Albany, and Charles M. of Mohawk.

Tuesday the funeral of father and son was held in this city, Rev. George C. Baner, Pastor of the Universalist Church, conducting the services. The remains were placed in the receiving vault in Forest Hill Cemetery.
