

[Shaw, Sarah G.]

Death of Mrs. J. P. Shaw

Another of the older residents of the city passed away yesterday in the person of Mrs. Joseph P. Shaw, whose death occurred yesterday afternoon, at her home on Gorham street. Mrs. Shaw was born in New York, but married her husband in Bridgeport, Conn., coming to this city when a bride. Since that time, a period of twenty-nine years, Mr. and Mrs. Shaw have lived in this city. She was a Universalist in her belief, and until her health failed over year ago, was an earnest and active member of the Second Universalist church. Besides her husband, three sons, William P., Joseph B., [and] Irving W., and three daughters, Misses Fannie, Hattie and Grace, survive the deceased.

Democrat and Chronicle, Rochester NY, Fri. 9 Oct 1883

Transcribed on 5 Mar 2008 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY