

[Shoemaker, Clarissa Caspares]

DEATHS.

In Danube, of consumption, on the 28th of July, Mrs. CLARISSA, consort of Andrew Shoemaker, of Mohawkville, and daughter of John and Polly Caspares, of Stark, aged 19 years, 11 months, and 19 days. Her funeral was attended on the 30th, at the meeting house in Newville, and a sermon delivered to a large and attentive congregation. This is the second companion which has been taken away from the embrace of our bereaved brother. Truly can he say, I am the man that hath seen affliction—yet he mourns not as those who have no hope. With patience and resignation did our sister bear her last lingering illness, retaining unwavering confidence in God's impartial goodness... May the same faith that comforted and sustained her in the hour of death, comfort and sustain her bereaved husband...

Evangelical Magazine & Gospel Advocate, Utica NY, Fri. 30 Aug 1839
[a Universalist newspaper]

Transcribed on 10 Feb 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY