

[Shultz, Mary Elizabeth]

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Shults

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Shults, widow of Melvin W. Shults, died April 24 at the home of her son, Clyde C. Shults, Piping Rock Drive, Ossining, N.Y.

She was born at Starkville, N.Y., where she lived with her parents until her marriage to Mr. Shults. During most of her married life they resided in Fort Plain, and after his death she entered the teaching profession, teaching in various schools in New York State, until her retirement. Since her retirement she has made her home with her son.

Mrs. Shults was a highly intellectual woman, and was a loyal member of the Universalist Church.

Besides her son, Clyde, she is survived by a grandson, Theodore C. Shults.

Funeral services were held at the residence of her son in Ossining Monday evening, April 26 and at the Universalist Church, Fort Plain, on Tuesday afternoon, April 27, at 3:30. Rev. William Haney officiated on Tuesday. Interment was in the Canajoharie Falls Cemetery.
