CARROLL E. SIMMONS

A service was held Thursday at East Bloomfield for Carroll E. Simmons, 97, lifelong resident of Bristol, who died Feb. 14, 1967, at the Conesus Lake Nursing Home. The Rev. Raymond Nasemann of Bristol Community Church¹ officiated at the service, with interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

He was born July 3, 1869 in Bristol, son of John and Rhoda Blakes Simmons. For many years he worked as a painter-decorator. He was predeceased in 1954 by his wife, the former Cora Andrews. They had just celebrated their 61st wedding anniversary.

Surviving are a niece, Mrs. Elva Crooker of Bristol, and nephew, Maurice Andrews of Lima.
