

[Simmons, Harry]

ORLEANS

Mrs. Julia Savage was called to Bristol by the sudden death of her brother, Harry Simmons, 62, which occurred Sept. 14, after a long period of ill health, he having been a veteran of World War I. He served in France most of the time. Mrs. Savage and members of her family from Lyons attended the funeral, which was held Monday at 2:30 p.m. from the Universalist Church in Bristol. Honeoye-Hemlock American Legion Post had charge of the military service. Burial was in Evergreen Cemetery, Bristol. During the earlier years of his life, Mr. Simmons spent considerable time with his sister and family, in this vicinity.
