

[Simmons, Idora Cushman]

Mrs. Idora Cushman Simmons, 72, died Nov. 21 at her home in Little Falls, following a heart attack. Her husband, William C. Simmons, died seven months ago.

Mrs. Simmons was born in Richfield Springs, the daughter of Joseph B. and Mary Dingman Cushman. She received her education in the Richfield Springs Seminary and high school, and on Oct. 30, 1895 was married to William C. Simmons in Waterville. They moved to Little Falls about 40 years ago where Mr. Simmons was employed as a tinsmith. She was a member of the Universalist Church.

Surviving are one son, Curtis, and two daughters, Mrs. Marcus L. Wood and Miss Anita Cushman, all of Little Falls; two sisters, Mrs. Jennie Bigelow of Richfield Springs and Mrs. C. H. Wilson, Syracuse.

The funeral will be conducted privately Thursday from her home, with the Rev. Howard Gilman, Universalist pastor, officiating. Burial will be in Lakeview Cemetery, Richfield Springs.
