The passing away of Mrs. DeWitt Skadan removes from the city one of Auburn's oldest and most respected residents, at the age of nearly 85 years. From disability incident to age she has been confined to her home for many years. She was very pronounced in her Universalist faith and Rev. A.[Arnold] S. Yantis [pastor of the Universalist church] will officiate at her funeral Saturday, at the convenience of relatives, acquaintances being invited to the house until Saturday noon, March 4. She is survived by one son, George S. Skadan of Throop, one daughter, Mrs. Cora E. Snook and one sister, Mrs. Amelia H. Ormsbee of Auburn.
