

[Slater, Emma R. Steele]

MRS. EMMA SLATER

Mrs. Emma R. Slater, 83, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry C. DeLano of Barre Center, Dec. 20, after a week's illness.

Born in Elba on Jan. 3, 1861, the daughter of George and Rebecca Fuller Steele, she lived in Elba with the exception of a short time spent as a child in Rochester. She came to her daughter's home 15 years ago. Her husband, Orville L. Slater, died in 1926. Until she moved from Elba, she was an active worker in the Women's Christian Temperance Union, and the Elba Grange of which she was an honorary member.

Surviving besides her daughter, are a son, Howard L. Slater of Elba; a brother, Herbert J. Steele of Albion; three granddaughters, Miss Vera L. Slater of Rochester, and Misses Laurel and Marilyn DeLano of Barre Center.

Funeral services were held at the Grinnell Funeral Home, Saturday, Dec. 23, with the Rev. J. Murray Gay, pastor of the Pullman Memorial Universalist Church officiating. Interment will be at Elba when weather conditions permit.

Orleans Republican, Albion NY, Thu. 28 Dec 1944

Transcribed on 8 Jun 2018 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY