

[Sleeth, Lucy Black]

MRS. WALTER E. SLEETH

Mrs. Lucy Black Sleeth, wife of Walter E. Sleeth, died suddenly in her home at North Syracuse on October 1, following a stroke on the previous day. She was in her fifty-seventh year.

Mrs. Sleeth was born in Cicero and was a graduate of the Onondaga Valley Academy. She taught school for five years before her marriage in 1909 to Mr. Sleeth. She was a member of the Cicero Universalist church. She is survived by her husband and two daughters, Mrs. Charles Loux of Syracuse and Miss Esther A. Sleeth of North Syracuse; a son, Robert E. Sleeth; four sisters, Mrs. Rolland A. Strevor of Brewerton; Mrs. Angus Purdy of Syracuse; Misses Florence Black and Ethel Black of Syracuse, and several nieces and nephews. Mr. Sleeth conducts a grain store in Cicero.

The funeral service was conducted by Dr. Fred C. Leining at the Sleeth home in North Syracuse on October 3. [She was buried in the North Syracuse Cemetery.]
