

[Sliter, Celinda Bliss]

MRS. CELINDA B. SLITER

Mrs. Celinda B. Sliter, widow of Horace Sliter, passed away at about 4 o'clock Wednesday morning of last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred B. Chapin, on State St., Dolgeville. She had been in failing health for some time, due to her advanced age of eighty-seven years, but had been confined to her bed for only about a week.

Mrs. Sliter was born at Schuyler Lake, May 18, 1841. Her parents were the late Seth L. Bliss and Miranda Caswell Bliss. Her marriage to Mr. Sliter took place in 1864. She was for six years matron of the Otsego county home, during service of her husband as the superintendent of the poor of that county. Mr. and Mrs. Sliter moved to Dolgeville twenty-four years ago, the death of the former having occurred in 1911.

The deceased was a member of the Universalist church of Dolgeville. She was a woman of noble heart and high ideals, ever thoughtful of others, sympathetic and neighborly, and leaves the memory of a long, lovely and useful life.

Immediate relatives surviving are a son and daughter, Edwin L. Sliter and Mrs. Fred B. Chapin of Dolgeville; three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren; also a half-brother, W. J. Bliss of Herkimer; and two half-sisters, Mrs. L. H. Chase and Mrs. O. E. Meeker of New Berlin.
