

[Sloat, Ruby Fisher]

Mrs. Ruby F. Sloat

Mrs. Ruby F. Sloat, 72, of Chaumont, N.Y., died early Monday morning, Jan. 25, 1954, at the Cortland County Hospital following a long illness.

Mrs. Sloat was spending the winter at the home of her son, John F. Sloat, 109 South street, in Groton.

She was born in Chaumont July 7, 1881, the daughter of Emily Marks and Webster Fisher. She was the widow of Wallace Sloat, deceased in 1952. She was a member of the All Souls Universalist Church in Watertown and an honorary member of the Crescent Yacht Club in Chaumont.

Surviving besides John, is another son, Charles Sloat, and 5 grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Howard Cleveland Funeral Home, Watertown, N.Y. Rev. William J. Potter, priest-in-charge of St. Ambrose Church of Moravia, officiated. Burial was in Cedar Grove Cemetery, Chaumont.

Journal and Courier, Groton NY, Thu. 28 Jan 1954

Transcribed on 20 Dec 2016 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY