

[Slomaker, Julia]

FRANKFORT
MISS JULIA SLOMAKER

Death at Frankfort Center Brings Grief to Many Friends

Frankfort, April 16.—The death of Julia Slomaker of Frankfort Center occurred yesterday after an illness of a few days following a stroke of paralysis from which she had previously suffered. Miss Slomaker was born at Center on August 19, 1854, and most of her life had been spent there. She was a Universalist in faith and a lady of excellent qualities. She is survived by one brother, James Slomaker of Center and one sister, Mrs. Emma Muckey of this village, and two nieces. The funeral will be held from the home of her sister Friday at 2 o'clock.

Herald-Dispatch, Utica NY, Wed. 16 Apr 1919

Transcribed on 6 Jan 2018 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY