

[Smead, Eunice C. Knapp]

SMEAD.

Eunice C. Smead, widow of Selah E. Smead[, ] died at the home of her daughter Mrs. Herbert H. Brooks, in Buffalo, Saturday evening, March 20th, at 7:30 o'clock of cerebral hemorrhage, aged 84 years.

Deceased was born in the town of Perry in 1825, one of six children [including William, Betsey, Rhoda and Maryette] of William and Clorinda Warren Knapp. About 60 years ago [in 1849] she was married to Selah C. Smead. For a short time a number of years ago she resided in Warsaw with her sister, Mrs. William [Betsey] Bingham, and since 1860 she has lived in Buffalo. She is survived by the daughter at whose home she died. Mrs. Smead was an aunt of Mrs. Mary A. Older of this village.

Funeral services were conducted at the home of Mrs. H. H. Brooks, 923 Seventh street, Buffalo Sunday afternoon at three o'clock, Rev. Leon O. Williams of the [Universalist] Church of the Messiah, Buffalo, officiating.

The remains were brought to Warsaw Monday morning and burial took place in the family lot in Warsaw Cemetery.

Out of town friends here on Monday for the burial besides Mr. and Mrs. Brooks were Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Atherton of Moscow, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Smead of Pavilion, Miss Lucy Smead of Buffalo, and Rev. Leon O. Williams of Buffalo who also officiated at the grave.
