

[Smith, Albert L.]

Death of Albert L. Smith

Albert L. Smith of No. 98 North Division street died at his home Saturday afternoon at 4:30 after an illness extending over the past five years. He was born in Waterloo, was an honorably discharged fireman of the Waterloo department and at one time was deputy sheriff of Seneca county. He was appointed a guard at Auburn prison July 6, 1887 and later became a patrolman of the city of Auburn. Subsequently he returned to the prison as a guard and was employed there until about five years ago when illness compelled him to retire.

Besides his widow, Mr. Smith leaves four sons, Albert L. Smith Jr., of Geneva, Harmon D. Smith of this city, Lawson L. Smith and Northrop J. Smith of Syracuse; and four daughters, Mrs. Charles Page of Rochester, Mrs. Emily Kringle of Syracuse, Mrs. John Farrell and Mrs. William Bronson of this city.

The funeral will be held at the house tomorrow at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. Arnold S. Yantis, pastor of the Universalist church officiating with Masonic service conducted by St. Paul's lodge No. 124 F. and A. M. Burial will be made in Fort Hill cemetery.
