

[Smith, Frank W.]

WEST WALWORTH

WEST WALWORTH, December 9.—Frank W. Smith died suddenly, last Thursday morning. The funeral was held at the Baptist church, Sunday afternoon. Rev. Harry Wright [Universalist] of Macedon officiated. The Masons of Macedon and Walworth took part in the ceremonies. Interment in the Baker cemetery. Mr. Smith leaves a wife [Anna] and one daughter [Melba, age 3 years and 10 mo.], an aged mother [Lodema] and one brother. Mr. Smith had been a life-long citizen of this place, holding prominent offices. At the time of his death he was justice of the peace and was engaged in preparing the case in the suit of Valentine vs. Clague. This suit has been indefinitely postponed on account of his death.
