

[Smith, Frank Davis]

FRANK D. SMITH

Frank Davis Smith died at his home in Peconic, a neighboring village to Southold, on July 11. He had been a loyal member of the Universalist church in Southold for more than fifty years. He had been superintendent of the church school for more than forty years and served the parish many years as a trustee. He was a member of the Men's Club and prominent in all of the activities of the church. Dr. Samuel G. Ayres, pastor, conducted the funeral service. Mr. Smith is survived by his widow who was with him in all phases of loyalty to the Universalist church.
