

[Smith, Fred]

PROMINENT FARMER SUCCUMBS

DALTON—Fred Smith, 61, well known farmer, died at Nunda Hospital Friday, after he had tried to take his life several days previous by slashing his throat with a razor at his home on the Dalton-Oakland road. He was a trustee of the Nunda Universalist Church. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Amy Dolan Smith, and a brother, Albert of Dalton. Funeral services were held from his late home Monday afternoon, with the Rev. J. T. Jones of Nunda officiating, assisted by the Rev. E. C. Downey of Cortland.

Picket Line Post, Mt. Morris NY, Fri. 29 Apr 1938

Transcribed on 6 Dec 2010 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY