

[Smith, Nellie May Johnson]

Mrs. Alfred P. Smith

The death of Mrs. Alfred Patten Smith occurred yesterday morning at her home, 105 Kemble street. She had been ill for only two days, and her death was a severe blow to her family, and will be sincerely mourned by her friends.

Nellie Johnson Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Johnson, was born in this city August 2, 1885. Her early life was spent at Richfield Springs, where she resided for about 15 years. For the last seven years she has resided in this city. She was a graduate of Richfield Springs High School, a member of the Universalist Church of Richfield Springs, and belonged to the Delta Gamma Sorority. Mrs. Smith was singularly accomplished, and had an attractive personality, which endeared her to all with whom she was personally acquainted. She was united in marriage to Mr. Smith about three years ago, and he survives with one son, Alfred Patten Smith, jr., aged one month. She is also survived by her parents and one sister, Edna L. Johnson of this city.
