

[Snell, Ella Van Camp]

MRS. ELLA SNELL

Beloved Woman Is Called by Death

Fort Plain, July 6.— Mrs. Ella Snell, aged 71 years, widow of John O. Snell, died at her home in this village on Thursday following a five days' illness from pneumonia. Mrs. Snell was born here, where she had always lived. Her maiden name was Ella Van Camp and she was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Daniel C. Van Camp. The deceased was a member of the Universalist church and Fort Plain Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and while health permitted always took an active interest in the work of these organizations. She was of a pleasant and genial disposition and made friends of all who were thrown in her sphere, and her death will be generally regretted. She is survived by two sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Elizabeth Finehout, Mahlen Van Camp and Cornelius Van Camp of Fort Plain, and Mrs. Frank G. Bartlett of Cleveland, O. The funeral will be held from the late home on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, the Rev. Herbert Frank Moulton, D.D., pastor of the Universalist Church officiating. The interment will be made in the Fort Plain Cemetery.
