

[Snyder, Charles]

Charles Snyder

Charles Snyder died Monday night at his home in Hallsville. The cause of his death was brain disease. He was aged 34 years and leaves his wife and one son aged about seven years. Mr. Snyder was a prominent democrat and at one time was highway commissioner of the town of Minden. He was extremely popular and he has a host of friends who mourn the untimely death of a promising young man. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon from Mr. Snyder's late home at Hallsville. Rev. M. W. Tabor of the Universalist church of Minden officiated. The choir of the Church of the Messiah of Fort Plain sang several appropriate selections. The Mohawk Valley Lodge, K. of P. of which Mr. Snyder was a member attended in a body.

Mohawk Valley Register, Fort Plain NY, Fri. 14 Apr 1893

Transcribed on 26 Jan 2016 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY